

CULINARY CONCEPTS

01.06.10

DAILY
 CANDY

Life Après-Ski

DailyCandy Skips the Slopes

Suit up for another day of French fries/pizza-style skiing on the bunny slopes while the rest of the over-6 crowd shreds the black diamond trails? Not a snowball's chance. Which is not to say you can't have fun in the snow. Just pack your mittens — it gets mighty cold in the sleigh.

Totally Tubular

Cruise past Park City in Utah to the new St. Regis Deer Crest Resort in Deer Valley. You'll know you're there when you hit Ski Beach (with snacks from Jean-Georges Vongerichten) and warm your toes by the 40-foot wall of fire, the perfect place to retire after a long (or short) day of snow tubing. Yep, even more perfect than the 14,000-square-foot (damn!) Remede Spa.

SYNDICATE